HAIR: HAIR:

Mr. B. Schwartz has just arrived here with a large stock of human hair, consisting of switches, curls, puffs, braids, etc., and will sell it below cost price. Ladies will do well to embrace the opportunity, as Mr. Schwartz will remain here but two days. Call at the Ormsby House, room No. 43, on first floor. [ADVT.]

In strolling about the suburbs of the northern portion of our town we noticed quite a number of dwelling houses in course of erection. This is plain evidence that our city is gradually growing, and our population on the increase. Carson is bound to hold her ground as one of the leading cities of the State.

YESTERDAY we saw a "congealed water" man belaboring his horse for the slight offence of taking a few steps during his absence. No doubt the dumb brute understood the cause of its punishment, and will never do so any more.

KELLY & HOFER, the brokers, have about finished repairing their office. What with repainting, new matting on the floor, and other additions, their place of business presents a very nobby appearance.

ONE of our grocery firms made sales last month amounting to $15,000. Pretty good business for one firm to do in that length of time. It speaks well for the prosperity of our merchants.

Grand Lodge of the K. of P.

Yesterday was the second day of the session of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias. The report of the G. K. of E. and S. showed a marked increase in the order since the last session, the total membership at present being 350; also, the different Lodges have paid during the year ending July 31, 1875, for the relief of sick brothers and their families $931.95; and for funeral benefits, $197.70. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: G. C. Powning, Grand Chancellor; V. G. C. P. H. Mulcahy; G. P., W. H. Davenport; G. K. of E. and S., Charles E. Loughton (re-elected); G. M. of E., George Tully; Supreme Representative for two years, Charles E. Loughton. The installation of these officers made special order for 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—The first order of business being the installation of officers, the retiring Grand Chancellor then installed the following officers: Grand Chancellor, C. Powning, Amity, No. 8; Grand Vice Chancellor, P. H. Mulcahy, Damon No. 2; Grand Prelate, W. H. Davenport, Beatrice No. 7; Grand K. of E. and S., C. E. Loughton, No. 4; Grand M. of E., H. D. Lindsay, No. 6; Grand M. of E., George Tully, No. 2; Grand I. G., S. C. Davis; Grand O. G., C. W. Jones, No. 8. After the regular order of business was gone through with, the Grand Lodge adjourned sine die.

THE Nevada Democrat, of Reno, in an article of Monday's issue, takes occasion to touch upon the morals of this place. It says: "Last Sunday was a lively day in Carson. Sermons were preached at every church in town, and a match game of base ball was played on Treadway's picnic grounds. For the morals of the town we will say, that while the attendance in the churches was light, the playground was thickly settled. Then, with an exclamation of apparent pity and censure mixed, the article closes: "Oh! Carson, for shame, that the loud hurrah, and noisy, boisterous shout of a base ball game should be heard from one end of the city to the other on the Sabbath!" The old saying is—and we believe that it will hold good in this instance—"That people that live in glass houses shouldn't throw stones." We admit that a game of base ball on the Sabbath day is a little out of place, yet we think it better to know that there is such a day, and play base ball, than not to know it. We have no doubt but there are people in Reno who never heard of such a day, and never will, if they live in that place until moss grows on their noses.

OUT OF WORK.—All over our country at present can be found large numbers of men out of employment and the most of them out of money, which places them in very pitiful circumstances indeed. Some of them are willing to do most anything in order to get something to eat. We saw one yesterday—and his looks portrayed truthfulness in his assertions—who stated that he had come to this country some four or five weeks ago, and had as yet been unable to get any work. He was entirely without money, and almost without clothes, having sold them to get money to buy eatables with. Most of these luckless fellows are from the States, where they leave good homes and employment to seek their fortunes in the far west. We should think they could learn from the papers that this country is overrun with laboring men, and a poor place to be without coin.

He had been imbibing to freely of "old rye." His limbs were as limp as a dish rag. He was oblivious to all surroundings. Nothing could disturb the tranquility of the Bacchanalian sleeper. He lay as quiet as though in the arms of death. In fact, he was dead drunk—beastly drunk—was the man we saw hauled up to the county boarding house on a dray. There he was borne from our sight and we were left standing upon the sidewalk with uncovered head and bowed form in deep meditation over the sad downfall of a portion of the human race. To quote: "Do I sleep, do I dream; is our civilization played out, or is our Caucasian a failure?"

THE beautiful moonlight eve with which we are favored at present are a source of great enjoyment to our citizens, especially the younger portion—sweet sixteen, etc. You can take a stroll in almost any portion of the city, and hear the gentle cooing and wooing of lovers, as they sit upon the verandahs, or hang over the gates, of the "fair one's" abode. This probably accounts for the dilapidated condition of gates in general, and the tremendous run on hinges at our hardware stores. If it don't soon cease our hardware merchants declare they will get up a "corner" on hinges and make their fortunes.

Hon. Thomas Wren and District Attorney George W. Merrill of Eureka, are in Carson on behalf of Eureka county in the hearing before the Supreme Court of the mandamus case to compel the Recorder of Elko county to transcribe the records pertaining to property in the territory ceded by the Legislature last Winter to Eureka county, the decision of which will virtually set at rest the question of the disputed territory.

A PARTY of young gentlemen left town yesterday for Hope Valley. They are out for a hunting and fishing excursion and will be absent about two weeks. May good luck and plenty of sport attend the boys.

WON THE SUIT.—We mentioned the fact, a few days since, that Mr. James Duffy of this place had a suit in the District Court of San Francisco for breach of contract on terms of sale of a soda mine formerly owned by him in Churchill county, and that T. W. W. Davies, Esq., was attorney for Mr. Duffy in the case. It was a suit for $25,000 damages. From a private dispatch to Mr. Smith of the Acid Works, last evening, we learn that Mr. Duffy won the suit and will be home on Friday. Good for our townsman.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT, yesterday, two men were brought before Justice Withers charged with being drunk. One of them was fined $25 and went to jail. The other was fined $15 which he paid. William Hardy, Superintendent of the Brunswick Mill, was arrested upon a charge of malicious mischief, in shooting a cow on Brunswick Flat. He gave bail to appear for trial on Thursday next at 11 o'clock. The cow belonged to Daniel Hickey, with whom Hardy has had a previous difficulty.

Stocks are rather unsteady at present, being up one day and down the next, but the supposition is that the stock fever will be along soon in its most malignant form. Then look out for it is catching, and the attack sometimes is very severe. Many have fallen before the monster into the lowest depths of poverty, while others have gone "away up" into a millionaire atmosphere.

In conversation with a rancher, yesterday, we learned that harvest and haying now occupies the attention of our agriculturalists. According to his statement the crops all look well, and a good yield of grain is expected. The crop of hay is also very fair. This is coin for both ranchers and grain and hay speculators.

Monday night was one of the warmest and sultriest of the season. No blankets were in demand for comfortable sleeping. The cloudy sky indicated rain, which would be a great blessing in this region, if for nothing more than to lay the dust, which has become so plenty as to be almost suffocating to travelers over the roads.

FROM HOPE VALLEY.—Mr. Charles Parker and Mr. James Bigler with their families, and Andy Wright, yesterday returned from a three weeks trip to Hope Valley, Silver Lake and Lake Valley. They report having had a splendid time, hunting and fishing and camping. Andy brought in some of the finest specimens of petrified wood we have seen.

THE queer state of the atmosphere yesterday caused many to predict an earthquake, water-spout or some other terrible visitation. If it is to be an earthquake, we say let her come and shake up a few items.

HUMAN HAIR.—Those desiring to purchase hair-switches, curls, puffs, and the like—on favorable terms, should call on Mr. Schwartz, at the Ormsby House, to day, as he leaves to-night for Virginia City. See his notice elsewhere.

THE FAVORITE.—The Bank Exchange Saloon corner of King and Ormsby streets, is becoming the favorite resort of this city. The great attraction is Frederickburg Beer, while the best of wines, liquors and cigars are also sold at the bar. A first class Padra Game for the amusement of guests, a solid lunch at all hours and hearty good cheer for all are its recommendations to public favor. E. R. Brown is the proprietor.
